

Chapter 1:

Parts of Speech - Nouns

6th Grade Grammar

Lesson 1

Types of Nouns

The inventor created many new _____.

across processes dramatic the goes products

things

machines

Look at the incomplete sentence below. Decide which of the words in the box that follows can complete the sentence.

These words can complete the sentence.
These words are called nouns.

-  a noun names a person, place, thing, or idea

Two Types of Nouns

-  a common noun names any person, place, thing, or idea

Example:

- non-specific objects: shoes, hat, watch
- job titles: plumber, teacher, engineer
- ideas/concepts: hope, love, fear
- non-specific places: park, bench, store

-  a proper noun names a specific person, place, thing, or idea
- the first word and all other important words in proper nouns are capitalized

Example:

- names: Taylor Swift
- holidays: Labor Day
- places: San José, California
- days and months: Monday, September 1st
- brand names: Gap, Xbox, Taco Bell
- Job titles before name: President Biden

Make a T-Chart in your notebook that looks like this:

Proper	Common
Jeep Mars Wednesday American Thomas Edison Antarctica Halloween	jeep bike hope airplane light bulb painting pain

Sort the following nouns:

if it is a proper noun, you must correct capitalization!

jeep bike hope mars wednesday airplane american light bulb thomas edison painting pain antarctica halloween

Types of Common Nouns

-  concrete nouns name things that you can see or touch

Example:

- inventor
- city
- calendar
- trumpet

-  abstract nouns name ideas, qualities, or characteristics

Example:

- progress
- idea
- time
- culture

Make a T-Chart in your notebook that looks like this:

Concrete	Abstract
electricity water drums sunlight puppies	freedom time relief flavor employment

Sort the following nouns:

electricity water flavor drums freedom time sunlight puppies relief employment

Collective Nouns

An army of soldiers

A forest of trees

A herd of sheep

A constellation of stars

Read the examples on the left.
What do they have in common?

These words explain groups of people, places, and things.

a collective noun names a group of individuals or things. Can be singular or plural.

Identify the collective nouns in each sentence.

CAUTION!

 Often, a collective noun is followed by a preposition to clarify who is in the collective. The object of preposition is NOT the subject of the sentence.

The bouquet of flowers was delivered just in time for the surprise.

Bouquet is the subject of the sentence. Flowers is the object of the preposition.

Types of Collective Nouns

People

Class of students
Team of soccer players Audience of fans

Places

Range of mountains
Library of books
Galaxy of stars

Things

Batch of cookies Pack of gum
Stack of papers

Animals

Swarm of bees
Litter of puppies Waddle of penguins

Lesson 2

Singular & Plural Nouns

- A noun can be singular or plural.
- Plural means “more than one.” When there is more than one of something, you use plural nouns.

singular

= one key plural

= more than one keys

Forming Regular Plural Nouns

	Singular	Plural
 Add -s	doorknob wheel	doorknobs wheels
 Add -es when noun ends in -s, -sh, -ch, -x	bus watch brush fox	buses watches brushes foxes
 Ends in y, change it to -ies	puppy sky	puppies skies
 Ends in f, change it to -ves If the plural uses a v sound in plural form	bookshelf wolf thief	bookshelves wolves thieves
 Ends in f, change it to -s If the plural keeps its f sound in plural forms	chief cliff	chiefs cliffs

Forming Irregular Plural Nouns

 Some nouns look the same whether they are singular or plural

fish deer sheep moose

fish deer sheep
moose

 Some nouns don't follow a particular rule when plural foot child wife goose woman man person

feet children wives geese women men people

Lesson 3

Possessive Nouns

Examples of possessive nouns

The book's cover

The boss's car

The children's keyboard

The cat's tuna

Diane's necklace

What does it mean to “possess” something?

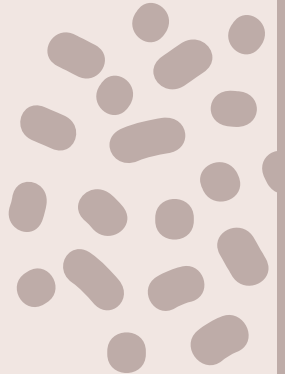

What do you think a “possessive noun” would refer to?

Can you think of an example?

Possessive Nouns

✎ A possessive noun names who or what owns or has something

- can be common or proper nouns
- can be singular or plural

Forming Possessive Nouns

	To Form Possessive	Examples
 Most singular nouns	Add an apostrophe and -s ('s)	a girl - a girl's coat Wichita - Wichita's population
 Singular nouns ending in -s	Add an apostrophe and -s ('s)	Joseph Ives - Joseph Ives's clock Alexis - Alexis's book
 Plural nouns ending in -s	Add an apostrophe (')	boys - boys' shoes the Wrights - the Wrights' plane
 Plural nouns not ending in -s	Add an apostrophe and -s ('s)	children - children's toys women - women's organization

Practice!

I saw that Jess' backpack was still in the locker room.

Jess's

Students, drag the icon!

Practice!

You shouldn't try to copy off of Dennis's homework!

Students, drag the icon!

Pear Deck Interactive Slide
Do not remove this bar

Practice!

I heard that the new store in the mall is having a sale on childrens clothing.

children's

Students, drag the icon!

Practice!

I forgot to give the students's tests back to them on Tuesday.

students'

Students, drag the icon!

Practice!

The coach unloaded all of his players' helmets from the truck

Students, drag the icon!

