

Unit 5

The Correct Use of Verbs, Pronouns, and Modifiers

Principle Parts of Regular Verbs

Lesson 5.1

5.1 Principle Parts of Regular Verbs

✎ Each verb has four basic forms to help express tense (time). These are called the principle parts of a verb.

The four principle parts are the present, the present participle, the past, and the past participle.

5.1 Principle Parts of Regular Verbs

The list below shows the principle parts of the verbs paint, hurry, grab, and race.

Present:	Present Participle:	Past:	Past Participle:
Paint	(am) painting	Painted	(have) painted
Hurry	(is) hurrying	Hurried	(has) hurried
Grab	(are) grabbing	Grabbed	(has) grabbed
Race	(is) racing	Raced	(have) raced

5.1 Principle Parts of Regular Verbs

✎ For regular verbs, the present participle is formed by adding -ing to the present tense. When you add -ing to a verb, be sure to change the spelling when necessary. The present participle requires a helping verb such as am, is, or are.

5.1 Principle Parts of Regular Verbs

Present:

I paint the fence.

We hurry to the park.

Kyle grabs a peach.

They race around the track.

Present Participle:

I am painting the fence.

We are hurrying to the park.

Kyle is grabbing a peach.

They are racing around the track.

5.1 Principle Parts of Regular Verbs

✎ The past is formed by adding -ed or -d to the present tense of regular verbs. When you add -ed or -d to a verb, be sure to change the spelling when necessary.

5.1 Principle Parts of Regular Verbs

Present:

I paint the fence.

We hurry to the park.

Kyle grabs a peach.

They race around the track.

Past:

I ainted the fence.

We hurried to the park.

Kyle grabbed a peach.

They raced around the track.

5.1 Principle Parts of Regular Verbs

✎ The past participle is formed when a helping verb such as have or has is added to the past tense.

Present:

I paint the fence.

We hurry to the park.

Kyle grabs a peach.

Past Participle:

I have painted the fence.

We have hurried to the park.

Kyle has grabbed a peach.

Come	(are) coming	came	(have) come

The Six Tenses of a Verb

Lesson 5.3

5.3 The Six Tenses of a Verb

✎ The tense of a verb shows time. There are three simple tenses and three perfect tenses.

The three simple tenses are the present, the past, and the future.

5.3 The Six Tenses of a Verb

 Present tense expresses action that is happening now. Use the first principle part (present) of a verb to show present tense.

I call my sister

They chop firewood every day.

The men load the boxes.

5.3 The Six Tenses of a Verb

✎ If the subject is singular or the pronoun he, she, or it, then add -s to the verb to show present tense.

He calls his sister.

Mary chops firewood every day.

The man loads the boxes.

5.3 The Six Tenses of a Verb

 Past tense expresses that something took place in the past. The action has already happened. Use the third principle part (past) to show past tense.

I called my sister.

Mary chopped firewood yesterday.

The man loaded the boxes.

5.3 The Six Tenses of a Verb

 Future tense expresses that something will happen in the future. Use shall or will with the pronouns I and we. With all other nouns and pronouns only use will.

I shall call my sister.

Mary will chop firewood tomorrow.

The man will load the boxes.

5.3 The Six Tenses of a Verb

✎ The perfect tense of a verb expresses the completion of an action.

✎ The three perfect tenses are present perfect, past perfect, and future perfect.

✎ To form the perfect tenses, use the past participle of the verb and a form of the helping verb have.

5.3 The Six Tenses of a Verb

 Present perfect tense expresses action that started sometime before now or action that is still happening. Use the helping verb have or has and the past participle of the main verb to form the present perfect tense.

Have or Has + Past participle = Present Perfect Tense

I have called my sister all day.

Mary has chopped firewood for hours.

The man has loaded the boxes all morning.

5.3 The Six Tenses of a Verb

 Past perfect tense expresses action that happened before another action in the past. Use the helping verb had and the past participle of the main verb to form the past perfect tense.

Had + Past participle = Past Perfect Tense

I had called my sister before dinner.

Before it snowed, Mary had chopped firewood.

The man had loaded the boxes before leaving.

5.3 The Six Tenses of a Verb

 Future perfect tense expresses action that will be completed before a specific time in the future. Use the verb phrase will have or shall have and the past participle of the main verb to form the future perfect tense.

Will have or shall have + Past participle = Future Perfect Tense

I will have called my sister by the time I leave.

By tomorrow, Mary will have chopped firewood.

The man will have loaded the boxes by noon.

Progressive Verb Forms

Lesson 5.4

5.4 Progressive Verb Forms

✎ The progressive forms of a verb express continuing action.

The progressive form is made by combining the appropriate tense of the verb be with the present participle (the second principal part) of the verb. The form of be changes to show tense.

5.4 Progressive Verb Forms

 Present progressive sentences express that a present action is continuing.

Basic Forms

Present

I help.

Progressive Forms

Present Progressive

I am helping.

5.4 Progressive Verb Forms

 Past progressive sentences express that a past action occurred over a span of time.

Basic Forms

Past

I helped.

Progressive Forms

Past Progressive

I was helping.

5.4 Progressive Verb Forms

 Future progressive sentences express future continuing action.

Basic Forms

Future

I will help.

Progressive Forms

Future Progressive

I will be helping.

5.4 Progressive Verb Forms

✎ Present perfect progressive sentences express that an action started in the past and continues in the present.

Present Perfect

I have helped.

Present Perfect Progressive

I have been helping.

5.4 Progressive Verb Forms

✎ Past perfect progressive sentences express that a past action started at an indefinite past time and continued until a definite past time.

Past Perfect

I had helped.

Past Perfect Progressive

I had been helping.

5.4 Progressive Verb Forms

✎ Future perfect progressive sentences express that a continuing future action will be completed before another future event occurs.

Future Perfect

I will have helped.

Future Perfect Progressive

I will have been helping.

	Singular	Plural
Present Progressive
First person:	I am racing	we are racing
Second person:	you are racing	you are racing
Third person:	he, she, it is racing	they are racing
Past Progressive
First person:	I was racing	we were racing
Second person:	you were racing	you were racing
Third person:	he, she, it was racing	they were racing
Future Progressive
First person:	I will be racing	we will be racing
Second person:	you will be racing	you will be racing
Third person:	he, she, it will be racing	they will be racing
Present Perfect Progressive
First person:	I have been racing	we have been racing
Second person:	you have been racing	you have been racing
Third person:	he, she, it has been racing	they have been racing

First person:	I shall have been racing	we will have been racing
Second person:	you will have been racing	you will have been racing
Third person:	he, she, it will have been racing	they will have been racing

Emphatic Verb Forms

Lesson 5.5

5.5 Emphatic Verb Forms

✎ Along with the basic and progressive forms, verbs also have an emphatic form.

Emphatic verb forms are used to show emphasis, to form questions, and for negative sentences.

The emphatic forms are used in the present tense and past tense and are made by combining the first principal part (present) of the main verb with do, does, or did.

5.5 Emphatic Verb Forms

I do like strawberries.

In this example, the first principal part of the verb like is combined with the verb do to form the emphatic form. The emphatic form gives greater emphasis to the idea expressed by the verb like.

5.5 Emphatic Verb Forms

Present emphatic-

Do or does + Present = Present Emphatic Tense

Depending on the subject, the present emphatic is formed by adding the present tense of the main verb to the helping verb do or does.

My brother does run fast.

I do need a haircut.

Jacob does fly an airplane

5.5 Emphatic Verb Forms

Past emphatic- Did + Present = Past Emphatic Tense

Past emphatic is formed by adding the present tense of the main verb to the helping verb did.

My brother did run fast.

I did need a haircut.

Jacob did fly an airplane.

5.5 Emphatic Verb Forms

✎ The emphatic form is more commonly used with questions and in negative sentences with the word not.

Questions

Do I need a haircut?

Did my brother run fast?

Does Jacob fly an airplane?

Negative Sentences

I do not need a haircut.

My brother did not run fast.

Jacob does not fly an airplane.

Active and Passive Voice

Lesson 5.6

5.6 Active and Passive Voice

✎ In sentences written in active voice, the subject of the sentence performs the action expressed by the verb in the sentence. The verb is called an active verb.

David wrote the letter.

In this example, the subject David is performing the action. David wrote.

5.6 Active and Passive Voice

More examples:

The boys purchased a sled.

My father wrote a book.

The museum offers guided tours.

Juwan painted the house.

5.6 Active and Passive Voice

✎ In sentences written in passive voice, the subject of the sentence receives the action expressed by the verb in the sentence. The subject is acted upon. The verb is called a passive verb.

The letter was written by David.

In this example, the subject letter is receiving the action. The letter was written.

5.6 Active and Passive Voice

More examples:

A sled was purchased by the boys.

A book was written by my father.

Guided tours are offered by the museum.

The house was painted by Juwan.

5.6 Active and Passive Voice

✎ Since active verbs are stronger than passive verbs, use the active voice more often than the passive voice.

✓ Mr. Wong dominated Mrs. Bhalla in trivia.

✗ Mrs. Bhalla was dominated in trivia by Mr. Wong.

Nominative Case & Objective Case

Lesson 5.7

5.7 Nominative Case and Objective Case Pronouns

✎ Personal pronouns have three cases:
nominative, objective, and possessive.

The way a pronoun is used in a sentence determines its case.

5.7 Nominative Case and Objective Case Pronouns

Nominative Case

✎ A pronoun used as the subject of a sentence or as a predicate nominative is a nominative case pronoun.

The nominative case pronouns are I, you, he, she, it, we, and they.

5.7 Nominative Case and Objective Case Pronouns

Subject

He ate the banana.

Marjorie and I went shopping.

We picked wildflowers.

5.7 Nominative Case and Objective Case Pronouns

Predicate Nominative

The winner is she.

The singers will be Evelyn and I.

Our neighbors are they.

5.7 Nominative Case and Objective Case Pronouns

Objective Case

✎ A pronoun used in the predicate part of the sentence as a direct object, indirect object, or an object of the preposition is an objective case pronoun.

The objective case pronouns are me, you, him, her, it, us, and them.

5.7 Nominative Case and Objective Case Pronouns

Direct Object

Our puppy likes him.

Grandma watched John and me.

Dad took them to the airport.

5.7 Nominative Case and Objective Case Pronouns

Indirect Object

Hand her the keys.

Mom cooked Dad and us dinner.

Give it some water.

5.7 Nominative Case and Objective Case Pronouns

Object of a Preposition

You can ride with me.

I will sit by Joy and you.

That belongs to us.

It and you are both nominative and objective case pronouns.

Comparing Adjectives

Lesson 5.8

5.8 Comparing with Adjectives

✎ Adjectives are often used to compare nouns or pronouns. There are three degrees of comparison including positive, comparative, and superlative.

5.8 Comparing with Adjectives

✎ Use the positive form of an adjective when making no comparison.

That tree is tall.

5.8 Comparing with Adjectives

✎ Use the comparative form of an adjective to compare two nouns or pronouns. Form the comparative of most one-syllable and some two-syllable adjectives by adding -er.

That tree is taller than our house.

5.8 Comparing with Adjectives

✎ Use the superlative form of an adjective to compare three or more nouns or pronouns. Form the superlative of most one-syllable and some two-syllable adjectives by adding -est.

That tree is the tallest of any tree in our yard.

Lesson 5.9

5.9 Comparing with Adverbs

✎ Like adjectives, adverbs have three degrees of comparison including positive, comparative, and superlative.

5.9 Comparing with Adverbs

✎ Use the positive form of an adverb when making no comparison.

Marla swims fast.

5.9 Comparing with Adverbs

✎ Use the comparative form of an adverb to compare two actions. Form the comparative of most one-syllable and some two-syllable adverbs by adding -er.

Marla swims faster than Kyla.

5.9 Comparing with Adverbs

✎ Use the superlative form of an adverb to compare three or more actions. Form the superlative of most one-syllable and some two-syllable adverbs by adding -est.

Marla swims fastest of any girl I know.
